Consignment Policy

Stuart Swan Furniture Company and Consignor shall establish a dollar value that shall be paid the Consignor when the item is sold. That value shall be established in writing at the outset of the consignment agreement.

Stuart Swan Furniture Company will absorb all transportation costs for pick-up and delivery to the store, as well as any expenses to polish and prepare the item for sale.

Stuart Swan Furniture Company shall have the right of first refusal to purchase consigned item @ the price established at the commencement of the consignment agreement at any time during the consignment period.

If Consignor reclaims possession of the item, Consignor shall reimburse Stuart Swan Furniture Company for its transportation and dealer prep expenses. Pick-up from the store shall be at Consignor's expense.
